Career Development Resources

Center for Doctoral and Post Doctoral Career Development
- www.dpcd.pitt.edu
- Assists in career planning throughout your graduate career
    - Plan is called ADAPT (A Developmental Approach to Professional Training) you can learn more about the plan on the website provided.
- Website has a calendar for career development seminars
    - December 6 – Developing competitive grant applications
    - December 14- Endnote basics

Versatile PhD
- Can be found at the bottom of the homepage on www.my.pitt.edu
- Provides non-academic professional development
- Provides a list of non-academic careers for your specialization
- Contains forums to talk with individuals in designated fields
- Job listings
- Potential locations for meetups with members of Versitile PhD

Lynda
- Can be found under "Tech Training from CSSD" under My resources on www.my.pitt.edu. Lynda.com login will be on the upper right hand side when you get to the page.
- Online tech training
- Enhance business skills, learn computer coding, print and web design, etc.

Career Development and Placement Assistance (CDPA) 200 WPU
- www.studentaffairs.pitt.edu/cdpa/students/gradstudents/
- Handshake- career services platform used by CDPA
    - Has job listings
    - Schedule appointments with staff at CDPA
- Drop in hours Mon-Fri 10am-4pm
- Provides mock interviews
- Has online career resources

Prepared by A&S GSO president, Amber Griffith for distribution. 12/5/17